

Institutional Effectiveness: Evidence of Improvement Based on Assessment Activities.

Examples for Institutional Effectiveness in Academic Affairs (2):

- New, non-teaching support staff in Davidson's science departments.
- Curriculum change, as the departments of Chemistry and English have restructured and simplified their major requirements; Economics now requires majors to study econometrics in a separate course at an earlier stage.
- Significant changes in the senior experience in Economics, English, and Political Science.