

Davidson encourages students to conduct independent research on issues or to integrate service issues into their course of study. Students can

1. Design a major through the Center for Interdisciplinary Studies (ex: African-American studies and Urban Education issues)
2. Arrange to do an independent study with a professor in any department (ex: homelessness amidst poverty)
3. Use service for activities in other classes (ex: statistics on the effectiveness of tutoring on second graders in Davidson)

Dr. Dave Wessner
Davidson College
Service Learning Committee

Davidson College Community Service

Stacey Riemer
Assistant Dean, Community
Service/Bonner
704-894-2133, striemer@davidson.edu

Kevin Buechler
Director, Community Service/Bonner
704-894-2298, kebuechler@davidson.edu

Katie Lipsett
Fellow, Community Service/Bonner
704-894-2460, malipsett@davidson.edu

Marcie Leemore
Director, Freedom Schools
704-894-2872, maleemore@davidson.edu

DAVIDSON

7.22.05

Service and the Classroom

Service Learning
and Community Action Research

