

Patterson Court Judicial Board Statement of Rights

- Accused organization shall be informed in writing of the charges against them.
- Accused organization shall have adequate time to prepare their case.
- Accused organization shall have the right to the advice and assistance of their Judicial Board Representative, Faculty/Staff Advisor, the Sergeant-at-Arms and the Patterson Court Advisor.
- Accused organization shall be assumed not responsible until proven responsible by clear and convincing evidence.
- Accused organization shall have the right to call witnesses, shall be allowed to question and cross-examine witnesses, and shall have a fair opportunity to present a defense.
- Accused organization shall not be restrained in any manner from the full exercise of their rights of appeal.